IVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

Association of whose organization we gave ount a few days since, is now ready to dis f shares. As it is with one exception, (the nd Homestead Association,) the pioneer or-tion of that kind in this city, it may be ough to state what are its purposes, and nner in which it is proposed to conduct its ions. The purposes of these Homestead ations are not at all speculative in the or-sense of the word. They are dependent profits of their investment upon the natuvance in the value of their lands, conse-upon the co-operation of many individuals eholders—and the advance on values of all nding lands by reason of the expansion of tion and demand for room outside of, but ear, the city. The Riverside Homestead ation has a fraction over one hundred and acres of land situated just south of lyn on the east side of the river, the nearndary line being about one mile from the landing at East Portland. The tract lies strip along the Wallamet river, half a mile gth, and another strip along the Oregon and nia railroad, half a mile in length, the two being connected near the middle by two blocks (with a street between them,) the forming a figure not unlike the letter H. ivided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square (with running at right angles) and 80 fractions, along the river front. The shares num-0, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that e thus represents nearly a lot with an undiinterest in the 80 fractional lots. The 80 frac-shares are to be sold off at the proper time benefit of the Association, shareholders g in for the proceeds in proportion to the r of shares held. When all shares are and the Association shall deter-to do it, the choice of lots and blocks be put up at auction to the highest , the proceeds of such sales, after deducting iginal price of shares or lots, to be divided y among the whole number of shares.
if a person wants a particular lot or block willing to pay $100 or $800 premium (more as the case may be) he pays it and takes t or block as his individual property, the m being divided among the whole number areholders. It will be seen, therefore, that hing is co-operative, and all interests mu-No man can make a dollar out of it withso making a dollar for every other equal holder. There is no chance for loss, unless operty, by some chance, should depreciate low the first actual cost. Whether this is be in the case of this particular of land must be judged by each for himself, nsidering the steady and unprecedented adon real estate in this city and neighbor-and at East Portland and vicinity, for the or two, it seems hardly possible for to go back.
he Riverside Association all proper precauseem to have been taken to guard against olies of shares. No person is allo[illegible] ore than the number of shares repr[illegible] blocks, or twenty-four lots, and votes de[illegible] ing the operations of the Association are ed in the same manner. The buyers of may pay down $60 per share, which will s them from all assessments, or they may 5 quarterly with an assessment of $3 per a pay but with the first installment, being in this latter case to another (and only one) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the nt of the shares in full, with the assessments we the holder is entitled to his [illegible] is proportion of all the profits [illegible] ures. No officer of the Association [illegible] ay for services except the Secretary, who 25 per month; so it will be seen that the es must be light.
t part of the tract lying along the river is a plateau, nearly level, about 60 to 90 feet the water. There is no part of the front blocks but commands a splendid view of nd and the river for miles up and down . That part of the tract lying along the d is every foot of it, of the richest soil d adapted to gardening purposes. A beau little stream of pure water runs through the entire length of this wing of the tract, ng the means of irrigation, and power suf-to supply pure water to every part of the tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional the entire tract. Under all these given it would seem impossible that there should chance of loss to shareholders. Within a each shareholder, if he choose, may get a title to as many lots as his shares may but or he may continue his interest und-with the Association while the organizahave been led to make these remarks from the t the subject of making homesteads on the out-of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly d here among all classes, and one homestead—the side,—just south of East Portland—has already tablished. The site selected is a tract of land lyttle over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile

, borders on the river.
this portion of the land [illegible] which is elevated dle above the other prong of the H, but is still fifty feet above the river, can be had an extenw of Portland, East Portland, the shipping, and the river for several miles. The land is very and is partly covered with light fir timber. A land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, avenue between them, connects the west prong (which has already been described) with that o
. This last tract of land is in a beautiful little which is now under a high state of cultivation.
h its whole length runs a trout brook, the water h is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the tion proposes to have water conveyed through every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.

EASTERN DATES TO DECEMBER 3.

Losses in Late Battles—Further Accounts from Paris.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The German losses in the sorties on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday were 157 officers and 5,000 men killed and wounded. The French loss, partially ascertained, is 3,400. An additional report, it is believed, will swell the French losses.

A dispatch received at Tours says Gen. Vinoy, with the first corps, got wholly through the German lines on the south, and effected a junction with a portion of D'Aurelles' forces, advancing from the southwest.

The Telegraph says the French have won a great advantage in the departments of the Seine and Marne, and now possess a military preponderance never enjoyed since the opening of the campaign.

A special from Tours says official dispatches announce that Generals Trochu and Ducrot completely surrounded the Prussians between Brie-sur-Marne and Choissey le Roi.

Ducrot is now encamped 16 miles from Paris. The French losses were 2,000.

A special to the Times from Tours, the 1st, says the army of the Loire has effected a junction with Trochu's forces from Paris.

The Germans under Prince Frederick Charles are retiring before the united armies.

It is said that Trochu has with him, outside the walls, 300 cannon.

A dispatch from Prince George of Saxony, received by the King of Saxony, describes the fighting at Noisy and Villiers, in which the Saxon troops took a part, states that the French were repulsed and driven over the heights between the two villages, leaving behind hundreds of prisoners. The French attacking force numbered 50,000.

The Terms to be offered to Paris.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A special correspondent to the Herald, at Versailles, writes on the 28th ult., that if the army of Orleans should capitulate, Paris would be summoned to capitulate within three days following. The terms of the surrender are: Regulars and Gardes Mobile to become prisoners of war; the National Garde and Irregulars to be allowed to return to their occupations in private life; the cannons and munitions of war to be given up to the Prussians, and the irregular garrison to be permitted to march off with honors of war. If these terms are refused, the bombardment of forts will immediately follow.

Military Movements.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Prussians have burned the town of Charleville.

The Germans are still in heavy force at Bois Los Court.

Heavy firing is going on to day in the direction of Chareton.

German troops are near Orleans. A correspondent at Orleans telegraphs at 8 A. M. as follows: The army of the Loire is at this moment marching out from headquarters and leaving Orleans.

The Prussians are concentrated between Joinville and Pithiviers.

France Asked to Participate in the London Conference.

TOURS, Dec. 2.—Members of the Government here have referred to their colleagues in Paris the English note asking the French to participate in the conference on the Eastern question to be held in London.

War News from German Sources.

VERSAILLES, Nov. 30.—A sortie was attempted against Choisey le Roi, and feigned attacks upon Mont Retout, and Bosons would have been pushed home had the Prussian lines proved to be weak. The French began a movement against Besons in the middle of the night of the 28th by a cannonade from Mont Valerian, and an attempt, real or feigned, to throw bridges across the Seine. A musketry fire was exchanged between belligerents on the opposite sides of the river and the whole Prussian force of the Peninsula of Carriers. Meantime the French were preparing an attack upon Mont Retout with infantry, moving up from Surnes under cover of the guns of a new outwork at Mont Valerian. This attack commenced at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The Prussians were vigorously shelled, and detachments of the Garde Mobile began skirmishing. Several Prussian field batteries and a number of the regiments of line infantry advanced to support the Jager companies, and the fifth corps engaged with French gunboats on the Seine, which took part in the action and shelled the Jagers. There were two or three attacks upon Mont Retout as if to storm the Prussian works, but the French supports were so maneuvered as to give the impression that no orders had been given them to advance, although they were in strong force, and French officers were continually exposing themselves to hold their troops steady. The enemy suffered much from the Jagers' fire. About noon the fire from Mont Valerian slackened, and the Mobiles were withdrawn.

German Unification.

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—The Federal Council have ratified a convention providing for a union of Bavaria with the Confederation. The Bavarian Diet meets on the 10th to take action on the treaty.

The Black Sea Question.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Standard warns England that the Gladstone Ministry are preparing for an infamous and disastrous capitulation to Russia. In spite of Granville's resistance, a conference has been accepted without the withdrawal of the Russian note. A mere meeting of the Powers will be a virtual submission to all that Russia asks.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 2.—The Czar congratulates President Grant on his offer of the assistance of the American fleet. All the Powers have accepted the proposals for a conference, but the date of meeting is not fixed.

EASTERN STATES.

Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—The great Tube Iron Works, on Filbert street, were burned last night. Loss, $175,000. Insurance, $100,000. Three hundred and fifty workmen are thrown out of employment.

The Muddle in Alabama.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Private telegrams received last night from Alabama show the situation unchanged. Next Tuesday the law compels a vote to be taken for United States Senator. It is thought here that five Republican members of the House will be unseated by the Democrats, in consequence of their ineligibility under the Constitution, they having been Federal office-holders at the time of their election. If this be done, it will give a Democratic majority on joint ballot. The prominent Democratic candidates are Judge Goldthwaite, J. W. Sykes and Col. Crenshaw, but it is thought that Lieut. Gov. Moran will be the successful man. It is true, as reported, that a number of Republican members refuse to support Senator Warner under any circumstances. Their opposition is based on Warner's refusal to vote for the fundamental conditions in the admission of Virginia, Mississippi, Texas and Georgia, and his unfriendliness to the course of Senators Sumner and Morton, as well as his endorsement of Andrew Johnson's policy. Alexander White and Judge Harrison are prominently named as Republican candidates.

The Atlantic Cables.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—At this hour, 3 P. M., no European dispatch has been received at the Associated Press office of to day's date. This is explained by the statement from the cable authorities that the Directors of the line in England have ordered the transmission eastwardly by the French cable of messages which have accumulated in America since the recent disaster to the English cable. Messages are now going forward rapidly. Late events in France have caused an enormous increase in the number of messages both ways, and the facilities of the Telegraph Company, having only one wire instead of three as heretofore, are taxed to the utmost. It is likely, however, that the eastward business will soon be cleared away, when dispatches will come forward as usual. Meanwhile the steamer Robert Lowe is actively at work repairing the English cable, and the telegraph authorities trust that communication will soon be restored in that direction.

CALIFORNIA.

The Marysville Lottery Tickets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—In the case of Frank W. Gross, arrested on a charge of misdemeanor, in vending Marysville lottery tickets, Judge Stanley, in the County Court, before hearing any evidence, read a written opinion, in which he declared the Mercantile Library Lottery Act to be unconstitutional and void. Consequently the anti lottery statute never was repealed, but remained in full force and effect. He said the legislature could not repeal a law without enacting one of similar character immediately.

On hearing the testimony he held the defendant to answer before the Grand Jury, fixing bail at $500, which was promptly given.

He said he should do his utmost to get Grand Jurors who would not be disqualified to act, by reason of being implicated themselves, and would use all his power to enforce the law.

The police this afternoon have arrested John S Scott, Warren Jones, and John Barber, on charge of dealing in lottery tickets. Some parties having a large number of Mercantile Library lottery tickets, which drew nothing, talk of suing the Association under this decision, for a return of their money and damages.

General News from San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Dr. Cohen, the astrologer, has been remanded to the custody of the Sheriff, on a writ to have his case dismissed. His bail has been fixed at $10,000, in default of which he goes to jail to-night,—and bad luck to him.

The ship Prima Donna, from New York, reports that on October 10th, in latitude 57°, longitude 59°, while in rough weather, passed three bales of what appeared to be wool, each with three iron bands. It floated lightly, as if not long in the water. The ship Oremorne, from this port for Liverpool, June 1st, with a cargo of wheat, copper and silver ore, etc., has never been heard from. It is feared she is lost.

The Chamber of Commerce, at a special meeting this afternoon, appointed a committee of five to collect facts relative to the Australian trade. Col. F. A. Rice addressed the meeting. He said the difficulty between Webb and other parties, had been amicably settled, and the line would certainly be started if the subsidy was secured. The committee was instructed to memorialize Congress in favor of the subsidy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Gold, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, 111¼.

The steamer Sacramento, for Panama, took no treasure, and but a small number of passengers.

Many members of the National Guard are moving to secure the appointment of Gen. John S. Ellis as Brigadier General, vice Gen. Hewston, whose term has expired. It is believed that his appointment would heal all the differences hitherto existing, and add much to the efficiency of the militia force of this District.

Wm. McKay McLanglin, of the editorial corps of the Bulletin, has resigned his position, and left for Baltimore by steamer to-day, to take a position on a paper there. Col. Chas. W. Crocker has also resigned his position on the City Department.

Mrs. De Rodas, a Mexican woman, was fearfully burned by dropping a coal oil lamp in her house, on Dupont alley, last night.

F. B. DeLas Cassa, a California pioneer, aged 40 years and 6 months, a son of an exiled Spanish nobleman, died of consumption here to-day. He had been many years connected with the postoffice, and at the time of his death was Captain of the city delivery force. His remains will be buried at Oakland, with those of his wife, deceased some years since.

In the case of Goodman, arrested for selling Marysville lottery tickets, in the County Court to day, defendant pleaded guilty and Judge Stanley fined him five hundred dollars, as he was the principal in the affair.

Wm. Donnovan, convicted at Martinez to-day of the murder of Geo. Winchell, will be sentenced Thursday next.

Wm. W. Walker, convicted of murder in the second degree, for shooting his wife, was sentenced to ten years in San Quentin.

Chas. N. Fox, R. W. G. R., will leave San Francisco for Victoria, British Columbia, on the steamer of the 5th inst., for the purpose of instituting the Encampment branch of the Order of Odd Fellows in the latter city.

The case of Dr. Josselyn, convicted of procuring an abortion, but granted a new trial by the Supreme Court on the ground that the testimony of the young girl, on whom the crime was perpetrated, was not corroborated, was dismissed from the docket of the County Court to day by request of District Attorney Byene, for the reason that no other witness saw the crime committed, consequently her testimony could not be directly corroborated.

Jones, Bradley and Scott, arrested for selling Marysville lottery tickets, waived an examination to day. They were sent before the Grand jury. Bail was fixed at $500 each.

The schooner Reliance, Capt. Hall, loaded with lumber and flour, went ashore near Coquille, on the night of December 1st. The vessel and cargo are a total loss.

The Eureka, Grass Valley, Mining Company, declares a dividend of $10 per share, payable on the 7th inst. The proposition to increase the stock from $1,200,000 to 2,000,000, will be voted on January 3d.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SUMMIT VALLEY, Dec. 2.—Snow commenced falling at three o'clock this morning, continuing all day.

GILROY, Dec. 2.—Heavy rains fell in this vicinity during last night and to day. It is raining hard now.

SANTA CRUZ, Dec. 2.—Heavy rain and wind storm here all last night.

STOCKTON, Dec. 3.—Advices from Mariposa and Snelling's, state that rain fell steadily all day yesterday, and that the rain has been general throughout Merced, Mariposa and Fresno counties.

In the County Court to day, on charges of house breaking, Ah Lee and Ah Luck were sentenced to three years each, and Ah Ping to two years' imprisonment in the State prison.

MONTANA.

Fight Among Indians.

HELENA, Dec. 2.—Advices from the north say a desperate battle was fought between the Grosventres and Assiniboines, against the Bloods and Piegans, near the boundary line. The latter were defeated, losing nine killed. Later in the day, the Bloods and Piegans, joined by twenty white men, camped in the neighborhood, attacked the Gros ventres and Assiniboines, and killed all except one, who was allowed to escape to tell of the disaster. The number of Grosventres and Assiniboines killed was about 100.

UTAH.

Surveys along the Union Pacific Railroad.

CORINNE, Dec. 3.—A Cheyenne telegram says the first lot of township plats made for Wyoming were transmitted to the General Land Office, by Dr. Silas Reid, Surveyor General. They are for the lately surveyed lands along the Union Pacific Railroad around that city, which townships are now sectionized and ready for pre-emption by settlers. Twelve townships more are also sectionized along the railroad around Wyoming and Laramie City, on the Laramie Plains, and the plats will soon be ready for Washington. The great Iron Mountain will soon be reached by the public surveys, which are being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, Dec. 2.—Garnett, one of the prisoners shot and wounded in the State Prison yesterday morning, died last night.

Snow fell for the space of an hour to-day.

C. L. Perkins, present State Printer, proposes to start a Democratic paper about January 1st.

Ormsby county has paid $13,473 of its indebtedness during November.

Wells, Fargo & Co ship to night thirty one bars of bullion, valued at $61,093 35.

VIRGINIA, Dec. 3.—The Yellow Jacket south works will shut down to night to put in new machinery.

Shea, another one of the convicts wounded in the late State prison emeute, died yesterday.

Four inches of snow fell last night.

Wells, Fargo & Co. ship to-night 44 bars of bullion, valued at $78,889 14.

The Arkansas Legislature stands five Democrats in the Senate and twenty-three members in the House, while the Republicans have twenty Senators and fifty members in the House.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Boston Times remarks that "if Wendell Phillips was the brains of the Republican party once, it was singular to see how lively it proved at election yesterday with its brains out." There is more wind than ballast about Windy Phillips at almost any time.

Preparations for the spring election in New Hampshire are already being made. Gen. Nat. Head is the most prominent among the Republican candidates for the nomination of Governor. The Republicans have called their State Convention for January 4th.

Later returns confirm the statement previously made in the San Francisco Bulletin that the Republican candidates for the following positions have been elected in Nevada: Controller, Secretary of State, Surveyor General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and State Mineralogist.

Some of the papers, in making up the next Congress, put Mississippi down as among the States yet to hold elections. The delegation from that State was distinctly elected to the Forty-second Congress, as well as to the unexpired term of the Forty-first, and the delegation is unanimously Republican.

From the New York Herald: The health of Chief Justice Chase, though much improved, will not admit of his resuming his official duties during the coming year. The reports of his intended resignation are the veriest bosh, and the innumerable candidates may possess their souls in patience—their services will not soon be needed.

Says the New York Herald: The poets of the New York Post are laboring very hard to make up a case in favor of Gen. Cox and against Gen. Grant and the McGarrahan land lobby job; but the more they stir it the muddier they make it for Cox, and the clearer they make the justification of the President in turning the case over to Congress.

Secretary Robeson denies the report that he is a candidate for United States Senator from New Jersey as Cattell's successor. He says he is in favor of Cattell's re election. Equally good authority says Frelinghuysen will not be a candidate at the approaching election. From what is known of the condition of affairs in New Jersey there appears to be little doubt that Senator Cattell will be re-elected.

The statement that the President refused to see Senator Schurz on Thursday is incorrect. The Senator called, it is true, at the White House, but did not send his card to the President. He simply inquired of Gen. Dent if the President was engaged, and receiving an affirmative answer, said he would call at another time as he could not wait. This is Gen. Schurz's own statement, and we have no doubt of its accuracy.

The election for Representative to Congress in the Fifth Maryland District will be contested. Judge Merrick, Democrat, was elected, and Mr. Gray, the Republican candidate, will contest on these grounds: First, that in Charles and in St. Mary's counties colored voters were intimidated, in violation of the Congressional election law; second, that separate polling places were provided in some precincts for the white and colored voters.

Immigration and the War.

THE EFFECT OF THE DECREASED INFLUX OF FOREIGNERS.

The true strength of the United States, the real source of their wonderful energy and elastic force, lies in the swift development of the West. European war, says the New York Times, therefore, which checks emigration, checks the growth of this country. There can be no more immediate connection between cause and effect than that by which, when the influx of fresh labor stops, the phenomenal increase of the Republic must stop. True, it may go on for a space by its own momentum, but necessarily on a modified scale, constantly tending to diminution, and a concurrent shrinking of statistics and values. We have been getting for example, each year from the countries now at war, somewhat more than 100,000 emigrants. Now, the war which began on the 19th of July has only occupied about one-third of the time since the 1st of January. Yet the immigration at this port alone has fallen off more than forty thousand in that space, and if the struggle continues, will decrease necessarily in a greater ratio hereafter. The emigrants, moreover, who will cease to come, are not of the class who remain on the seaboard or settle in the great cities. They are of the thrifty, energetic, agricultural class who have been used to flock to the plains of the west, pressing onward the fringe of culture and civilization, and rendering possible and profitable those vast enterprises of internal improvement, which, in their absence, must necessarily stand still or depreciate. It seldom happens, in truth, that the calamities of nations really benefit their contemporaries; and, as the United States are situated in their industrial relations with the people of Europe, such an expectation with us would be chimerical. We are not more likely, on the whole, to profit by war in the Old World than would the city of New York by a war between Wisconsin and Illinois. The misfortunes of either creditors or customers seldom tend to the advantage of a single trader, and there are good reasons for expecting verifications of the same principle in the experience of a nation.

De Paladines.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

The dependence of France in this crisis of her fate appears to be not in the marshals and generals of the old Imperial regime, who have one and all met with ignominious defeat, but in the unknown, though not untried soldiers of less renown. As in our own war, when leaders sprang from the ranks of our citizen soldiery, competent to fight the battles of their country, France's come from the people. The provisional government, with enthusiastic but practical Gambetta at its head, which has organized new armies of trained and skilful men, comes from the commonalty. Just now General Aurelles de Paladines, the victor of Orleans, is the cynosure of all eyes. He, too, it appears, has always been a democrat, and consequently has never met with the advancement which his talents and services merited. He is now in the fifty-third year of his age. The major portion of his life has been spent in the service of his country. His conduct in Algeria twenty-five years ago received high praise even from Cavaignac.

When approached by the agents of Louis Napoleon, when the latter contemplated his coup d'etat, Paladines resisted all their efforts to draw him into their plans. While other talented young officers allied themselves to the fortunes of the Imperial adventurer he remained true to his republican faith. For this he was ever afterwards distrusted by the government, and while officers of inferior ability and who had seen less service were entrusted with marshal's batons, Paladines could not rise above a simple brigadiership.

This was his rank when the Empire went under at Sedan. France had suffered a series of the most humiliating defeats, and Paladines was still the inferior of many of the corrupt and incompetent generals who owed their stripes to their devotion to the person of the Emperor. Casting about for leaders to command its embryo armies, Paladines was selected by the Republic as one in whom reliance could be placed. He was entrusted with an important command, and has already demonstrated his patriotism and ability to handle large bodies of troops, qualities which the Imperial marshals failed to exhibit.

How to Stop American Manufactories

The Herald opens on the subject of revenue reform. It condemns a protective tariff. It wants a tariff so arranged as to procure the largest amount of revenue from each article taxed. This doctrine, we showed a day or two ago, would admit the [illegible] of a considerably higher duty on certain articles of universal consumption than is laid on those articles now. The Herald quotes a part of our remarks and then proceeds to unmuzzle its wisdom in this way:

> Here is just the point where we think our neighbor is groping in the dark. A tariff which will procure the largest amount of revenue from the article taxed does not at all mean the highest possible tax upon the article for the plain reason that the rate of tariff may be so high upon an article as to greatly retard or effectually destroy the importation of such article thereby diminishing instead of replenishing the revenue from the taxation of that particular commodity

Who said that a tariff which will procure the largest amount of revenue from the article taxed does mean the highest possible tax on the article? Certainly we did not. But we did say that several articles of prime necessity, on the 'revenue reform' theory could be taxed much more heavily than now because the people are forced to have them and will have them at whatever cost. On sugar for example, the duties might be very largely increased without preventing its importation and the Government would get much more revenue than now. And the revenue reformers who insist that the tariff shall be so arranged as to procure the largest amount of revenue from each article would be compelled by their theory to increase the duties on sugar largely. The Herald pronounces for high duties on sugar tea and coffee but it has heretofore grumbled very much about the present duties on those articles. The reason for this change is that the so-called 'revenue reformers' are taking this course, and the Herald always vacillating and always ready for any inconsistency when it thinks it sees a chance for a political advantage, commends the 'revenue reformers' with whom its party is now trying hard to effect an alliance. This inconsistent, contradictory course comes of having no principles, no policy and no fixed and settled ideas.

But we are told that while the duties on the articles just named should be fixed at a high rate in order to bring the largest possible amount of revenue to the Government the duties on woolen goods, on iron and other commodities, should be diminished or abolished, because 'the money does not go to the Government but into the pockets of capitalists.' If the laboring people of the United States vote for the adoption of this policy, which will stop American manufactures and bring in foreign goods to take the place of those now manufactured at our factories, they will soon be convinced that the greater part of the money under the protective system went into their pockets as wages and when they find wages no longer they will have leisure to reflect on the situation and arrive at a conclusion as to what is the matter. The State of Oregon is rich in all the elements of wealth, but that wealth cannot be developed because we import from Europe and China, notwithstanding the present tariffs at lower prices than we can manufacture at home. We have great beds of iron ore, but though an energetic and costly attempt to establish smelting works has been made, the attempt has failed. And it has failed, let it be observed, though the duty of foreign pig iron has been nine dollars per ton. Suppose pig iron should be admitted free, can any one suppose that the iron beds of Oregon would ever be opened?

The duty on foreign woolen goods for several years has been such that Oregon has been enabled to start quite a number of woolen factories and an industry has been developed which has been a source of wealth to the State. It has been profitable to the woolgrower, it has caused the investment of considerable capital in mills and machinery, and has given employment to many laborers. These are the direct and noticeable results of the protective tariff on woolen goods. Let that tariff be abolished as the Herald demands, and this entire system of industry will stop at once. The mills will be forced to shut down, sheep-husbandry will be no longer profitable, the farmer will have no market for his wool and the famous blankets and cassimeres of Oregon will be known no more. Foreign countries with their underpaid labor will supply us, and our home industries will be sacrificed to meet the demands of visionaries. Let such counsels as these given by the Herald prevail and down comes that grand Democratic establishment of Salem, the "Wallamet Woolen Manufacturing Company" of which Gov Grover is the head. We have no particular reason to admire that institution, for it has made Grover, Smith Miller and other "aristocrats" what they are and has given them all the power they possess but it has been at the same time, as every industrial establishment must be, an advantage to the country and a help to its prosperity. Gov Grover might join the Herald in demagoguing on this subject, but the very last thing which he and his associates really want is the establishment of the tariff on woolen goods. For we do not question that the tariff is profitable to them while it is also profitable to the country at large. But we would not think it very good policy in order to cut off their profits to strike a blow at the industry and prosperity of the State.

Inasmuch as the Herald pronounces this thing of protection rotten to the core, in that it takes "money out of the pocket of the consumer and places it in the pockets of the manufacturer," we hope it will lose no time in obtaining the opinions of eminent Democratic manufacturers, like Gov Grover and Gen Miller on the subject so that we may ascertain just to what extent a Radical Congress has swindled the people by a protective tariff for their benefit.

Wheat as a Specialty

The Commissioner of Agriculture recently delivered an address before the Illinois Agricultural Society, in which he advanced some ideas relative to the bad policy of making the culture of wheat for export a specialty. We have frequently touched upon the same matter but portions of this address enforce the idea so strongly and go so direct to the merits of the case that we make room for them in our columns. The Commissioner said:

> Exporters of breadstuffs and political enthusiasts who neither know nor care for the interests of farmers sometimes prate of the great value of cereal exportations. It is and ever must be if persisted in as a settled policy, and relied upon as a permanent source of prosperity an unmitigated curse rather than a blessing. It disturbs the equilibrium of production, despoils the soil of its fertility fattens a horde of go-betweens, and often gives the larger portion of the crop for the transportation of the remnant. No man in his senses or unblinded by the glare of gold can fail to see the wastefulness of the exportation to another continent of so bulky a product as wheat or flour. If as is asserted the price of the quantity consumed at home is fixed by the price of that which is sold abroad the comparatively large exportation of last year might as well have been burned with the straw so far as the grower was concerned for the reduction in the home consumption far exceeded the value of the exports at the seaboard.

This is very well said and is the essence of good sense and sound philosophy. We quote another paragraph:

> A nation that lives by exporting wheat five thousand miles by land and sea must have a short existence. It is a folly which the practical sense of our farmers will never practice extensively, the vestiges of which will vanish gradually as population increases and advances westward. Let our agricultural exports increase in meat and cheese and wool and in a hundred extended and valuable products of agriculture not in wheat.

We are exporting wheat from Oregon as a temporary expedient but it is not profitable and never can be. Those interested in promoting and fostering our industries should [illegible] as they can.

How completely gift concerts, as lottery gambling is now called have taken possession of the public mind in California may be seen by the many announcements of these enterprises in different portions of that State. In Nevada county the "Grass Valley Benevolent Association" announce a grand gift concert to take place on the 2d January the object being to aid the school fund the orphan asylum and fire department of that town and to extend water pipes through its streets. There are 100 000 tickets at $2 50 each equal to $250 000. The prizes are 1 578 in number and are to draw in the aggregate $150 000. The remainder $100 000 will go to the purposes [illegible] and into the pockets of the managers. Gambling is fast becoming the absorbing pursuit the leading industry in California. We do hope we hear no outcry from politicians and demagogues about Chinese competition in this direction—though we do read that the heathen Chinee bore a very successful part in the game with Bill Nye and the other fellow and that Bill after being beaten at his own game of stocking the cards by the said heathen Chinee, exclaimed that he and his white associate were ruined by cheap labor.

The muddle in the Alabama Legislature, to which allusion is made in the dispatches is explained in this way. The Republicans have a majority in the State Senate and the Democrats have a smaller majority in the House. On joint ballot the Republicans have two or three majority. Several of the Republican members, at the time of the election were Federal office-holders, though they resigned immediately after the election. It is now proposed by the Democrats to make this a pretext for turning them out which action would give the Democrats a majority on joint ballot. But whether a United States Senator so elected would get his seat remains to be tested. Very probably he would not.

The New York Tribune is not sure of the wisdom of giving much attention to such lies as have lately been uttered against President Grant and thinks it would be as well to let them pass without that notice which serious refutation gives them. The authors of such falsehoods, says that paper, can always invent three while you contradict one. The character of a public man rests on a basis beyond the reach of sensational inventions of this sort, and if it is capable of being defended needs no defense. The people of the United States know General Grant—have known all about him since Donelson and Vicksburg. They do not know his slanderers—and do not care to know them.

The New York Evening Post a paper which published many unfounded statements relative to the President in connection with the McGarrahan business, has, since the publication of the whole correspondence on the subject frankly confessed that it was in error in many particulars and that its censures upon the President were unjust. So much for haste and jumping at conclusions.

CURRENT NOTES

A poor but honest youth at Wilmington North Carolina, was recently encouraged to be good and virtuous by a reward of ten cents for finding and restoring to the owner a pocket-book containing $435.

Iron ships are rapidly superceding wooden vessels in the English ship yards. In 1865 there were 806 wooden ships built in England. In 1869 but 324. In 1868 the tonnage of iron ships built was 235 937 against 66 977 wooden and 24 121 of composite.

Mrs Agassiz tells us that in certain Amazonian tribes while the wedding festivities are going on the bridegroom's hand is tied up in a paper bag filled with fire ants. If he bears the torture smilingly and unmoved, he is considered fit for the trials of matrimony.

A diamond hunter has arrived in England from the Cape of Good Hope, having in his trunk a diamond stone valued at £30,000 sterling. This takes the shine off the "black diamonds" of the West [illegible] in former years and tends to contradict Carrie Jellaby's assertion of "Africa's a beast."

The London Athenæum states that the new edition of Pope now in press by Murray the English publisher will contain several hundred unpublished letters the suppressed satire on the Duke of Marlborough, and many new lines and various readings from the original manuscripts of the principal poems.

For the convenience of railroads addicted to accidents an arithmetical individual computes the value of a man's life in dollars. The amount that a laboring man receives for one year's work at $1 50 per day is $469 50 which amount is 6 per cent on $7 825 and the latter is therefore the cash value of the man to his family.

It isn't safe to indulge in kissing for fun in New York. In a suit in the Common Pleas court in which the defendant admitted that he had kissed the complainant, just for fun you know, the jury decided that the proceeding was calculated to raise hopes of marriage and accordingly brought in a verdict of $150 for the party kissed.

The Charleston Mercury says emigrants will be received with open arms by the people of the South. Their services are needed here and the white men who come to South Carolina to settle now will meet with facilities never before offered them. Let them come to Charleston. There are committees here who will see them well provided with lands and work. The Charleston Mercury of the olden time sung a very different tune from this.

The future Queen of Spain is described as being haughty and imperious, while her husband is "quite the reverse." Two weeks after marriage this modern Xantippe boxed her husband's ears soundly and told him he was a miserable beggar and that when he married he had only "ten shirts to his back." The giving her husband the ear ache was pretty bad but to reproach him with not having a full dozen shirts was to add insult to injury.

The army of the Cumberland at its late reunion at Cleveland, elected Gen Rosecrans President. It was resolved to keep Gen Thomas' chair perpetually vacated and draped in mourning, and resolutions were adopted looking to the erection of a monument over his grave and a committee was appointed to devise methods of raising funds to procure plans and specifications and report at the next meeting which it was resolved to hold in Detroit. In the afternoon Gov Palmer, of Illinois delivered the regular annual address and in the evening a general banquet was given at the Rink.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

Recent Events around Paris

LONDON Dec 3—A telegram dated Tours December 2d says it is officially stated tonight that one or two days must elapse before the fruits of the movements now in progress may be fully reaped. Up to this time successive steps have been taken and every movement brings nearer to each other the armies of the Loire and of Paris. During the fighting on the 29th Ducrot and Vinoy captured four guns and many prisoners.

Advices from Paris to November 30th state that an order has been issued to the press to the effect that military movements and particulars not sanctioned by the Government officials are not to be published on pain of suspension.

The military authorities have made public the following details of recent events around the city.

On the 29th at daybreak a cannonade opened from the forts south of the city. Next day Generals Vinoy, Lucenval and Despreau made out of the forts a reconnoissance south of L'Hay and Choussy Le Roi. They attacked two positions of the Prussians and also dislodged them at Granvilliers. Their loss was severe.

German Movements

TOURS Dec 2—The Prussians are concentrating at Etampes thirty miles south of Paris to dispute the advance of Daurelle De Palladines.

Prince Frederick Charles has left Pithiviers.

Ducrot's Sortie Successful

LILLE Dec 2—Ducrot's sortie from Paris was successful. He is now seeking to effect a junction with De Palladines.

The Franc Tireurs have beaten the Prussians at Tremblay.

Germans in Department of Somme

ARDENNES Dec 2—A force of 1 600 Germans have occupied Abbeville, in the Department of the Somme. A German column is threatening Doullens near Abbeville in the same Department.

LONDON Dec 3—None of the Prussian siege guns are yet in position.

It is said that if the King accepts the German crown he will assume the title of Kaiser Von Preussen and Schirmher Von Deutschland.

Advices from Paris

TOURS Dec 2—A balloon from Paris descended near Le Mans. It left that city on the 1st and brings the following news. The French troops kept the positions they took in the sorties of the 29th and 30th and are preparing to vigorously prosecute an offensive movement. Vinoy had position greatly in advance of Ducrot. The latter was stopped owing to a sudden rise in the river brought about by the Prussians breaking away the dam and not on account of any resistance offered. The Prussians retook Champigny but the French took it again.

The Prussians and the French had demanded a truce to bury their dead.

The Army of the Loire has made a successful forward movement.

All the railways in this part of the country have ceased temporarily to take passengers owing to the enormous movement of troops.

English Advices.

LONDON Dec 3—Thomas Hughes Member of Parliament for Somersetshire, in addressing his constituents last evening referred to the recent capture of American fishing vessels by a British gunboat. He deplored this, as adding fresh difficulty to the Alabama embroglio. He cited his American experience and described the sentiments of Americans on these questions. He concluded by expressing a hope that both the Alabama and the fishery questions would soon be settled amicably.

At Birmingham last evening, a large meeting was addressed by Harold Vicar of St Peter's, Rogers Jacob and others. Resolutions in favor of a Peace Congress were adopted.

Referring to the German loan it is said that the security is excellent—as the population is better able to bear the tax and are now taxed so little.

From Egypt.

CAIRO, Dec. 2—Army furloughs have all been withdrawn so that in case of difficulties arising from the Eastern question the army can be placed at the disposal of the Sultan.

Austrian Affairs.

PESTH Dec 3—Baron von Beust, Count Andrassy and Ex Secretary of War Kuhn, met a sub committee of the Hungarian delegation yesterday. They stated that the political question is serious but that the military situation is good. There is no great anxiety in the Empire.

Dispatch from Florence.

FLORENCE Dec 2—Farvira has been appointed President of the Italian Senate.

EASTERN STATES

RALEIGH N C Dec 3—The Democrats in the Assembly are debating regularly about impeaching Gov Turner.

WASHINGTON Dec 3—Congressmen are arriving rapidly. There will certainly be a quorum on Monday.

M Treilhard has received his credentials. Berthemy departs for France on Monday.

CHICAGO Dec 3—The Journal's Washington special says Senator Spencer of Alabama who has just arrived says the Democrats will elect a Senator from that State to succeed Warner.

The question as to when the Pacific railroads are bound to pay interest on the bonds loaned to them by the Government is still before the Attorney General and will not be decided for some time. It involves difficult questions at law. The roads through their attorneys claim that by provisions of the law, interest is to be paid one-half in transportation and 5 per cent on the net earnings and whatever remains is not due until the bonds mature.

Railroad Accident in Canada

TORONTO Dec 3—Two freight trains collided on the Grand Trunk road to day. Three men were killed and two trains wrecked.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 4—Weather warm and cloudy—wind south. No vessels other than small coasters have arrived or departed within the last twenty four hours.

Gen Cazneau visits Sacramento to inaugurate vigorous reforms in the administration of the Adjutant General's office. He does not anticipate any serious conflict of authority between himself and his predecessor in the office Gen James M Allen. The feeling in favor of the appointment of Gen John S Ellis to succeed Gen Hewston seems to be very general among the National Guard here.

Andrew Sullivan was arrested last evening on a charge of highway robbery, knocking down John Miller in Second street cut and taking his watch and chain three weeks ago.

A careful canvass of the new Board of Supervisors who take their seats to morrow evening shows that they stand tied 6 to 6 on the question of allowing the Mayor to appoint the standing committees instead of permitting the ring magnate. Should there be no change before to morrow evening the Mayor must appoint or there can be no committees organized. The ring cannot rally a majority and citizens are indulging in the hope that it is broken.

UTAH

SALT LAKE Dec 3—A few days since L F Tracy, agent of Wells Fargo & Co in this city received a dispatch from Elko Nevada stating that two lawyers named Bonnfield and Rand of Elko said to be counsel for Dan Taylor one of the C P R R robbers had after consultation with Taylor suddenly left for the East. Tracy placed the matter in the hands of the police here and they had a detective on their track who as soon as Bonnfield and Rand arrived here on the train followed them west of this city to near where Taylor was captured and arrested them in the act of digging up the stolen treasure amounting to $3 000 in greenbacks and 40 ounces of gold dust which was taken from them and in digging down further they found $1500 in coin. The prisoners are now in custody. They say Taylor told them where the treasure was hidden and to act as his counsel.

NEVADA

DIAMOND STATES Dec 1—Advices from Eureka to day say the Monroe and Collins mine in Secret Canyon now owned by J H Anderson and J B Osborne is producing splendid ore. Thirty tons are now on the dump that will work more than $400 per ton. This is one of the old locations which has been idle until lately but since work has been commenced the results have been far beyond the expectations of the owners.

The Statesman learns that a building thirty feet by one hundred has been erected inside the palisades at the Penitentiary, as workshops for the blacksmiths and carpenters who are to be preparing work for the new State prison building. There are now three blacksmiths and three carpenters among the convicts and these will do much of the iron and wood work. Twelve thousand feet of cedar lumber has been taken up by railroad for the frames of the doors and windows. The force has been employed of late in excavating for the foundation walls. A stockade is to be erected soon around the site chosen for the new Penitentiary.

WAR MISCELLANY.

It is officially announced at Tours that private messages will be sent by pigeon to Paris at the rate of fifty centimes (five pence) per word. The messages must be on purely private affairs.

The Saturday Review says apropos of the successful voyage of the French Minister of the Interior in a balloon that if titles of honor were admissible in a Republic M Gambetta would certainly be created the Prince of the Power of the Air.

September 28 1681 the French troops of Louis XIV took Strasbourg from the Germans by surprise. September 28 1870 exactly one hundred and eighty nine years after, the German troops of King William received Strasbourg from the French by capitulation. A strange coincidence.

Upon the surrender of Metz a mob at Tours went to arrest [illegible] Madame Bazaine, with the avowed intention of holding her as hostage for the Marshal until an examination should be made into his conduct. But Gambetta interfered and the lady left the city under an escort the next evening.

According to the Kreuz Gazette the German soldiers now in France and fit for service number 690 000 while there are 160 000 horses. The daily requirements of these forces are 2 000 000 loaves of bread 150 oxen 400 cwt of bacon 540 cwt of rice 100 000 quarts of brandy and 140 cwt of coffee 6 000 cwt of hay and large quantities of oats and straw.

The aurora borealis was lately visible in England and was the cause of much excitement among many who believed that Paris was burning. At a village in Leicestershire the villagers made various comments upon the supposed conflagration. [illegible] There is France for you. They are getting it [illegible] now and God knows it [illegible].

A correspondent writing from Tours tells how the news of the surrender of Metz was received in that city by the class that hates the Republic. The wealthy classes and the nobility testified their satisfaction by winks nods and handshakings. Even the [illegible] were glad to hear the news because in their national humiliation they hoped for the destruction of the Republic and their early return to Paris.

The Cologne [illegible] one of the largest papers of South Germany advocates the forcible annexation of German Switzerland. Speaking of a performance of Schiller's William Tell, in that city it condemns the theatrical manager for bringing such a piece before the public for it says the drama is only a political glorification of the secession of one of her finest provinces from the German Fatherland.

It is alleged by certain lookers on who sympathize with France, that the whole fabric of European political society is in agitation. Belgium trembles with a new fear before Prussia. Holland has the instinctive sense of being the next victim. Denmark fully believes that the next move against her will be for absorption. Russia knows that the treaty of Paris is practically abrogated and in the aggrandizement of Prussia she may find a plea for further aggrandizement and at the cost of whoever may be the easiest victim—Roumania Sweden Turkey. In losing its German provinces, the Austrian empire kingdom may fly to pieces. The collapse of France shakes the frail structure of Austrian dualism to its foundations. Switzerland is threatened in her German Swiss cantons by Pan Germanism.

THE TERRITORIES

During October 15 887 acres of land was disposed of at the Olympia Land Office.

Only two of the thirteen escapades from the Idaho Penitentiary have been re captured.

Dr Davis of camp Three Forks, Owyhee, informs the Avalanche that Indians in large numbers are arriving every week at that Post.

A dashing young widow of 13 years recently married a man of 40 and is now living in Boise City. She recently came from Salt Lake, and is said to have been a widow for three years, previous to this her second marriage. Wonderful countries are Utah and Idaho.

The census of Salt Lake, just completed shows the population of the city to be 12,545, against 8 236 ten years ago. The Herald thinks that including the residents of the bench and along the State road not included in the census the population would be 14 000. The census shows a population of 18 428 in the county, against 11,295 in 1860 indicating that nearly the entire increase in inhabitants during the decade has went to swell the population of the city, and that only a small number have located on the farming lands outside.

The Summer is past and Autumn is here,
The finest season throughout the whole year
But the days grow cool and all must prepare
For warmer Clothing in Winter to wear
Well KUHN & FISHEL, of Clothing renown,
Have the best supply ever brought to town
They have all sorts of coats and pants that will match
That will last a whole year and not need a patch,
There are sacks vests and shirts and a thousand things more,
Which they offer you cheaper than ever before
You all need the clothes and they need the tin
Then get a new suit and let Winter go in

A T Short and wife to G W Vaughn, block 141, lots 2 and 3, and fractional part of lot 5 in block 9, quit claim deed consideration $15,000

THE SMALL POX CASE —On Saturday Dr Kellogg was brought before the Police Judge, on a charge of violating a city ordinance by failing to report a case of small pox upon which he was attending, within the city limits, and was fined $50 and costs. He gave bonds, and filed notice of an appeal to the Circuit Court. The case of small pox is that of Miss Brown—the case we mentioned several days ago as occurring at East Portland She was taken down with the disease at that city, and was removed to her father's house in this city —near the corner of Hall and Second sts, about a week ago. Her father's family had all had the disease years ago, and as the in which they live stands at some distance from any other, the danger of contagion cannot be very great. Nevertheless, the failure of the physician to report the case to the Police, was a grave offense under our ordinance.

OREGON

The Northwestern Stage Company now run four horse coaches from the Dalles to Umatilla every other day

Since the Herald has been abusing Senator Trevitt of Wasco so violently, some of Mr. Trevitt's political friends in that county, so the Mountaineer informs us, have requested that paper to inquire of the Herald the particular crime he committed in his capacity as State Senator Was it his vote for Col Kelly's railroad resolutions and against the Ladd Pengra route, or had it something to do with frauds in the Public Printing?

The Grand Jury of Wasco has been investigating Democratic doings in that county Following is a portion of their report We have examined the books of the County Clerk and find them satisfactory as far as the present incumbent is concerned, but we would state that the late County Clerk, N B. Packard, and the County Judge, have drawn large amounts of money that were not legally due them, without the knowledge of the County Commissioners, and we would recommend that an action be commenced against them for the recovery of these amounts

The Mountaineer and the Herald are having a little discussion Here is a paragraph from the first named paper We do not know, neither do we care, who is at present the inkslinger in chief to that about "played out" personal organ, the Herald It is safe to say, however that the chap is not a high priced son of a musket as they don't pay extravagant wages at that shop It has been intimated that the hired man at present in charge, was a few weeks since a respectable and well paid saw mill clerk, and was not discharged for dishonesty, but actually resigned that honorable position that he might for a brief period be known as connected with a disreputable newspaper A clear case of natural moral depravity

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN the Holidays are approaching Everybody expects to give ad receive Christmas presents Before you buy go to B L STONE's, No 108 Front street and examine his stock of Gold and Silver Watches Chains Jewelry and Holiday presents Don't forget to inquire his prices He only wants small profits

Dear Ladies and Gents how do you do Don't you all wish to buy something new
A fine Watch made of silver or gold (For the one you wear is too old?)
A chain a ring pin locket or a fine set —
Then go to STONE'S you'll find it you bet

December is here with her storms and her rain
And it makes the folks of all wear her plain Hark ye dear gentlemen it is need not be so
You can all be kept warm for O NEIL & CO
Can fit you so nicely, so snug and so warm,
With CLOTHES that are proof 'gainst the bitterest storm
And they sell them so cheaply that all who go there
Unlike Flora McFlimsey can find something to wear

NO HUMBUG —We do not wish to inform any reader that Dr Wonderful or any other man has discovered a remedy that cures all diseases of mind body or estate and is destined to make our sublunary sphere a blissful Paradise to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show but we do wish to inform you that Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy has cured thousands of cases of Catarrh in its worst forms and stages and the proprietor will pay $500 for a case of this loathsome disease which he cannot cure It may be procured by mail for sixty cents by addressing R V Pierce M D Buffalo New York For sale by Druggists Dr Pierce's private Government Stamp is on each package of the genuine

A SLIGHT COLD COUGHS —Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or SLIGHT COLD in its first stage that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy if neglected, often attacks the lungs. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES give sure and almost immediate relief "The Troches have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from eminent men who have used them

Treat the Human Machine Gently—The winding passage thirty feet in length, through which the main portion of the waste matter of the system is discharged is lined with a membrane as delicate as silk and as sensitive as a net work of nerves can make it. Neither consumption colic diarrhea, dysentery, nor any other bowel complaint can be cured by abusing and convulsing this tender membrane by a furious purgative The best and safest remedy in such cases is that mild balsamic and delightful tonic laxative TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT which heals, tones and invigorates the irritated intestines while it relieves them from the morbid humors which provoke and sustain disease

Little Breeches

[illegible]

I never ain't had no show
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] in the prophets
[illegible]
[illegible] God and the angels
[illegible] last spring

[illegible]
[illegible]
Could bea him [illegible]
Peart and chipper [illegible]
Always [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

The snow [illegible]
As I passed by Tagga[illegible]
I went [illegible] of molasses
And left [illegible] team at the do[illegible]
They [illegible] at something and started
[illegible]
[illegible] prairie
Went [illegible] all

Hell [illegible]
I was [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
At last we struck horses and wag[illegible]
[illegible] under a soft white [illegible]
[illegible] dead beat—but of little [illegible]
No hide nor hair was found

And here all hope soured [illegible]
Of my fellow critters aid—
I jest [illegible] down on my marrow bones
Crotch deep in the snow and prayed

* * * * *

By this the torches was played out
And me and Isra[illegible] Parr
Went off for some wood to a sheep fold
That he said was somewhar thar

We found it at last, and a little shed
Where they shut up the lambs at night
We looked in, and seen them huddled thar
So warm and sleepy and white
And thar sot Little Breeches and chirped
As peart as ever you see
"I want a chaw of terbacker
And that's what's the matter of me

How did he git thar? Angels
He could never have walked in that st[illegible]m
They jest [illegible] down and toted him
To whar it was safe and warm
And I think that saving a little child
And bringing him to his own
Is a derned sight better business
Than loafing around The Throne.

Eugenie in England

Let us glance at the actual appearance which the House and park now present (Camden Place Chiselhurst the present residence of the ex Empress of the French) A glorious plateau of emerald lawn flanked on either side by a wealth of woodland which gleams with myriad tints in the deep autumnal sun—woodland thick and lustrous as the true Kentish man thinks that the woodlands of Kent alone can be a long low spreading house with walls of yellow brick, and with windows whose ample margin of white dazzles you in the bright rays of the clear October noon, approached by a splendid avenue of trees, worthy of the gardens of Kensington or the broad walk at Christchurch gardens laid out with a largesse of gay flowers and populous with the forms of French and Italian sculpture in front of the lawn itself a magnificent expanse of park over which the view stretches away into pleasant Surrey past the glaring turrets of the Sydenham Palace past the smoky towers of Croydon on either side you have still the trees from whose midst there perpetually peeps out a fairy villa or a stately mansion This is Camden Place. Verily a pleasant place too—a place worthy of its occupant and as pleasant a seat of refuge for an imperial exile as one could find. On the whole it is better than the Tuileries. We hold grass to be essential to a perfect dwelling and the functions of grass are among those things they understand better in England than in France The atmosphere above and around is well suited to the landscape below—fresh balmy, peaceful and sweet Would you see the imperial lady whose temporary home Camden Place is You may on any afternoon when the weather is moderately fine and the English sunshine not more cynical than usual At the bottom of the park runs a path which is open to the public and there, just above strolling down the park, are the party A little boy but upright and military in his gait even as the best drilled officer of Bourbaki's Guard clad in a light tweed suit, scours fleetly over the turf At his heels are a pair of fawn-colored terriers enjoying the fun as much as their young master does This is the child who not three months since submitted so bravely to his baptism of fire Well you murmur he is better employed here Behind the lively little lad come four ladies in groups of two and in the first group you see at once the Empress, looking marvelously well, and evidently enjoying the beauties of the scene A black silk dress, with a series of velvet flounces a plain, black velvet mantilla, a tiny Spanish hat of black straw, and an elaborately twisted and coiled vail of white—there you have in a few words the sum of the costume of the lady who for the past fifteen years has set the fashion to Europe—who has ruled over a territory which is bounded by no gross material frontiers—and whose kingdom no ambitious stranger has ever attempted to dispute Stop! we have forgotten two things The Empress carries a white parasol—sunshade is, we believe, the approved technical term—and guides her dainty footsteps with a curiously wrought stick of ebony The regime of the imperial life at Chiselhurst is studiously simple In the morning Her Majesty surrenders to the combined exercises of correspondence and devotion Then, after lunch comes the promenade in the park varied occasionally by drives and rides When the Empress first came to Chiselhurst both her own health and that of the Prince Imperial was far from good Even the sea breezes of Hastings had not repaired the effects of the two or three weeks of fevered anxiety and unintermitting care which preceded her arrival in England. What the Sussex watering place, whose salubrity is proverbial, could not achieve for the Imperial patient that the perfect quiet of Camden Place has done There Her Majesty has already become quite at home Her face is already familiar to the humblest villagers who greet with respectful bows the Imperial equipage and who are indebted to Eugenie ex Empress of the French, for many an act of generosity and kindness —London Society

A Yale Mystery The Hidden Bible In 1761 when that college building known as the Athenæum was in course of erection, some dare-devil student stole the chapel bible and skillfully inserted it within the half built walls The next morning the masons went on with their work and the book was apparently entombed forever An entry in President Stile's diary informs us of the loss of the Bible and a few years later is followed by another commemorating the fact that the thief [illegible] had sent word where he had concealed it It was of course too late to recover it and nothing was said or done until the Athenæum was remodeled during the last vacation The book had been placed in just between the two central windows of the north wall and when the floors and beams had been taken down one or two of the faculty, mindful of this legend of the past [illegible] the masons to take away the bricks and disinter the long buried treasure It was then almost evening and after half an hour's [illegible] search they left off with the intention of proceeding in the morning In the morning it was too late Whether some well informed person had been watching them from the beginning or whether some one overheard the directions given them is unknown but certain it is that when they resumed work the next day, they found that a few more bricks had been displaced and an oblong cavity was disclosed where the book they sought had evidently been Where it is now is unknown It is another of Yale's mysterious disappearances [illegible]

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrible situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written [illegible] binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicine promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

THE RIVERSIDE
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made before the books were opened and a large number of shares have been taken

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and working of the Association the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since is now ready to dispose of shares As it is with one exception, the first Portland Homestead Association, the first organization of that kind in this city it may be well enough to state what are its purposes, and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations The purposes of these Building Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word They are [illegible] for the profits of their investment [illegible] natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co operation of many individuals—shareholders—and the advance [illegible] surrounding lands by reason of the [illegible] population and demand for room [illegible] still near, the city The Riverside Association has a fraction over [illegible] twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the [illegible] east boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Wallamet river, half a mile in length and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the [illegible] by two rows of blocks (with a street [illegible] the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots along the river front. The shares number 600 worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional [illegible]. The 80 fractional shares are to be sold off at the [illegible] for the benefit of the Association [illegible] coming in for the [illegible] in proportion to the number of shares held. When [illegible] taken and the Association [illegible] mine to do it the choice of lots and [illegible] will be put up at auction to the highest bidder the proceeds of such sales, after [illegible] the original price of shares [illegible] equally among the whole [illegible] Thus if a person wants a particular lot or block and is willing to pay $100 or $200 [illegible] or less as the case may be, he [illegible] the lot or block as his individual [illegible] premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders It will be seen [illegible] everything is co-operative, and all [illegible] [illegible] No man can make a dollar out of [illegible] out also making a dollar for every other shareholder There is no chance for loss unless the property by some chance should [illegible] far below the first actual cost, which is not liable to happen in the [illegible] tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] advance on real estate in this city [illegible] hood, and at East Portland [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside [illegible] tions seem to have been [illegible] monopolies of shares No [illegible] buy more than the [illegible] three blocks, or [illegible] termining the operation [illegible] restricted in the [illegible] shares may pay down [illegible] exempt them from [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with [illegible] share payable with the first [illegible] liable in the latter case to [illegible] other) assessment of [illegible] payment of the shares in full [illegible] as above, the holder [illegible] and his proportion of all [illegible] all sources. No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services [illegible] gets $25 per month, so all [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying [illegible] a high plateau nearly level [illegible] above the water There is no part of the first row of blocks but commands a [illegible] view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream That part of the tract lying along the railroad is every foot of it [illegible] soil and adapted to [illegible] A beautiful little stream of pure water [illegible] almost the entire length of this wing of the tract affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract There is not a waste [illegible] lot in the entire tract Under all these advantages it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he [illegible] perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his [illegible] vided with the Association while the [illegible] tion may exist O[illegible]

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

We have been led to make these [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all [illegible] Riverside" just south of East [illegible] been established The site [illegible] ing a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length borders on the river.

From this portion of the [illegible] but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is all forty or fifty feet above the river [illegible] sive view of Portland, East Portland, the [illegible] the Willamette river for several miles. The [illegible] fertile and is partly covered with light fir timber [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks with an avenue between them, [illegible] of the H (which has already been [illegible] the east The last tract of land is in a beautiful little valley which is now under a high state of [illegible] Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association purposes to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the [illegible] —Daily Bulletin.
